

SHAKESPEARIENCE!

Swords, Scenes & Soliloquies!

Julius Caesar

Epilogue/ Curtain Call: Antony/ Octavius to Brutus

1. This was the noblest Roman of them all:
2. All the conspirators save only he
3. Did that they did in envy of great Caesar.
4. He only, in a general honest thought
5. And common good to all, made one of them.
6. His life was gentle, and the elements
7. So mix'd in him that Nature might stand up
8. And say to all the world 'This was a man!'
9. According to his virtue let us use him,
10. With all respect and rites of burial.
11. Within my tent his bones to-night shall lie,
12. Most like a soldier, order'd honourably.
13. So call the field to rest; and let's away,

FULL COMPANY:

To part the glories of this happy day.